

Map by DMA

Photo by S. M. Fetting

The New Mexico Breeding Bird Atlas Project

Dear Birder:

The New Mexico Breeding Bird Atlas Project began fieldwork in 2000. The project needs many volunteers. If you would like to be involved, please answer the following questions. If you cannot volunteer, financial donations are needed to cover printing and postage of maps, handbooks, observation cards and newsletters. The New Mexico Breeding Bird Atlas Project is a non-profit New Mexico corporation and all donations are tax deductible.

Please return this form to:

The New Mexico Breeding Bird Atlas Project
947 Quartz Street
Los Alamos, NM 87544

My name is: _____

My address is: _____

Phone: _____ e-mail: _____

I would like to help the atlas project in the ways I've marked below:

I would like to volunteer to work on an atlas block. Please send me a map of the atlas blocks from which I may choose.

I would like to help with office support by assisting with newsletters, computer work, telephone calls and other business aspects of the project.

I've enclosed a donation for the amount checked below. Please keep me on your mailing list for newsletters, and atlas updates.

- $10
- $20
- $50
- other amount _____